Subject.—Regarding the presentation of Salary and Establishment Bills for preaudit in Bangalore.

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, BANGALORE.

Circular No. 112—Pay Sec., dated 27th February 1928.

To—All Drawers of Bills at Bangalore.

It is noticed that the Salary and Establishment Bills payable at Bangalore are being presented for preaudit in most cases on the last working day though they can be presented three days before the last working day of the month to which they relate (vide Article 45 of Mysore Civil Account Code, Volume I) with the result that much inconvenience is being felt in this office in exercising proper scrutiny of the bills and at the same time preventing delay in payments.

The Drawers of Bills are therefore requested to utilise the concession allowed under the above article to the fullest extent and present their bills at the earliest date possible at the Counters of the "Pay Section" of this office to facilitate audit and prompt payments on the first working day of every month.

Bills presented on the last working day of the month cannot be expected to be returned after audit on the first working day of the next month.
